

Recruiting your company's future...

Now introducing four powerhouse women on the FUSCO team; our Office Services division.

The Office Services division here at Fusco Personnel Inc. is one of a kind. These women work around the clock, Monday thru Sunday to ensure their clients and candidates needs are met in the most efficient and professional way possible. They do what's necessary to get the job done. Their dedication is superb, their track records indescribable and their overall work ethic can't be beat. They specialize in recruiting temp, temp-perm and permanent placements in the areas of administrative, clerical, human resources, customer service, finance and more. So without further delay, here they are:

Lindsey joined Fusco in 2011 and Kristina in 2012. Together they are an unstoppable force who share a close friendship, love for their work and the same commitment to building lasting relationships with their clients and their talented pool of candidates.

Velma has been with Fusco since 2012 and Victoria since 2013. They work together and individually, screening candidates, booking interviews and preparing any necessary paperwork in assisting Kristina, Lindsey and our other recruiters with their daily routines.
